

A person in a suit and tie, holding a large, old book and a brown leather satchel, stands against a background of mathematical formulas and diagrams. The person is wearing a blue checkered suit jacket, a white shirt, and a brown belt. The background is a dark green color with various mathematical symbols and equations in a lighter green color. The text "WELCOME TO ROOM 101" is overlaid on the image in a large, white, sans-serif font. The word "ROOM" is in white, and "101" is in a light blue color. Below the main title, the text "CLASS Procedures" and "World's Best Teacher" is written in a smaller, white, sans-serif font.
